

Update – Precautions related to Edmundston Regional Hospital outbreak

March 19, 2021

Droplet / contact precautions lifted

With the recent cluster of COVID-19 cases in the Edmundston Regional Hospital (ERH) now contained, Public Health has recommended patients being transferred from ERH will no longer be required to be managed with Droplet/Contact Isolation Precautions.